ABOUT SARAWAK, BORNEO

Revealing a side of Asia unlike anywhere else, Sarawak offers an alternative for those seeking humble authenticity far from the tourist-trap clichés. Visiting Sarawak can be done as a complementary trip to Peninsular Malaysia and neighbouring countries, or a journey discovery all on its own. To discover Sarawak means taking the road less travelled.

Whether it is sharing in lifestyle of one of the many indigenous communities' longhouses, exploring gigantic caves in the UNESCO World Heritage of Gunung Mulu National Park, you will find Sarawak offers a host of memorable experiences to bring home to.

Connect with your inner-self; kayak along our boutique rivers, run your personal best marathon or hike the many jungle trails of Sarawak's diverse national parks.

From participating in a volunteer programme to learning how to cook Sarawakian dishes, from making new friends at major festivals and events to seeing orangutans up close, Sarawak is a prime destination for the intrepid traveller in you.

DAMAI GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Damai Golf & Country Club Bhd is the first in Malaysia designed by the legendary Arnold Palmer. The setting is truly spectacular, bordering the foothills of Mount Santubong and hugging the beaches and rocky outcrop of South China Sea. This international standard championship, 18 hole, par 72 course is turfed with Bermuda Greenlees Park and the freens with Bermuda Tifdwardf to ensure a true putting surface.

One of the most challenging hole is the signature hole 17, nicknamed the 'Pebble Beach' hole of Malaysia. This short 154 metres par 3 needs nerve of steel. It can be a heart breaking experience playing this hole. The very sight of rocks in the foreground, the sea beyond, and the capricious wind can play Hell to your concentration.
